

Al-Anon service is:

GRATITUDE IN ACTION

How many ways can you think of to perform service work in Al-Anon?

Greet a newcomer.....Put out the slogan cards.....Make the coffee.....
Chair a meeting.....Serve as a group treasurer, literature person or group rep.....
Become a phone volunteer.....Host a Fall Banquet.....Sit on a committee

The mission of AISGR (Al-Anon and Alateen Information Service of Grand Rapids Area) is to provide services that help people find Al-Anon and Alateen and to act as a resource for individuals, groups, and professionals within the community.

AISGR provides meeting schedules, a phone answering service and a website (aisgr.org). For more information info@aisgr.org

Al-Anon members with 2+ years of continuous membership who understand the value of service to Al-Anon/Alateen, our community and their recovery are encouraged to consider these opportunities.
